

St. Kew Parish Awards List of Recipients

2002

Lifetime Award to Dennis Wilce

For his outstanding contribution, not only to ringing the bells at St. James Church for over 55 years and being Captain of the tower, but also for his continued commitment to train others, so that this valuable tradition is kept alive and well.

Lifetime Award to Burnard Hawken

For his outstanding contribution to several organisations within the parish during the past 30 years. Including St. Kew School P.T.A, St. Kew Parish Council, St. Kew Parish Hall and St. Kew Gardening Association.

Contribution Award to Judith and Tony Mott

For their outstanding commitment to producing the Parish Newsletter %our Parish+for the benefit of all parishioners for the past 7 years.

2003

Lifetime Award to Jim Godden

For his involvement towards the activities of St. Kew Parish since 1975.

Lifetime Award to Dulcie Milner

For her contribution towards the social activities of St. Kew Highway since 1979.

2004

Lifetime Award to Doreen Grylls

For her dedication to the Parish Church in many roles for over 37 years. As an active member of the Womens Institute for 62 years, and as President and long time supporter of the Gardening Association.

Lifetime Award to Roy Davey

For his services as a parish councillor for over 20 years. Chairman of the management committee of the Parish Hall. Member of the Parochial Church Council and St. James Trust for many years.

Lifetime Award to Vina Gabriel

For her services to the Methodist Church for 71 years. As a publicity reporter for the Womens Institute for 20 years and her humanitarian efforts within the parish.

Contribution Award to Bob and Jean Plater

For their continued efforts in running and overseeing the modernisation of the St. Kew Highway Community Hall.

Contribution Award to Rear Admiral Alec Weir

For his ongoing support of the new Your Parish Newsletter, being Chairman of the Management Committee since its inception.

2005

Lifetime Award to Connie Skewes

For her contribution to the Gardening Association, The Parish Hall, Parish Council and her help to parishioners over many years.

Lifetime Award to Tren Rush

In recognition of her fund raising activities for various charities over 64 years and her recent successful fund raising for the St. James Church Window.

2006

Lifetime Award to Richard Godden

In recognition of 25 years service to the Parish Council, as past Chairman and councillor and his voluntary work over many years within the parish.

Lifetime Award to Gwen Hawken

Awarded for her unstinting support of all the functions within the parish for over 50 years, and as a valued member of the Parochial Church Council.

Contribution Award to Ceinwen Greenwood

Awarded for her contribution to the parish, as Churchwarden, organiser of the St. James Trust and the Community Bus

2007

NO NOMINATIONS

2008

Lifetime Award to Sybil Crahart

For her dedication and friendship to the people of St. Kew Parish, Visiting the sick and bereaved over many years, and for her commitment to St. Kew Highway.

2009

Lifetime award to Barbara Gabriel

In recognition of her commitment, dedication and long service to the parish and in particular to the parish council, the parish hall committee, the parochial church council and the St James Trust.

Contribution Award to Kim Appleby

In recognition of her hard work and dedication in securing the funds to restore and re-roof the parish hall, and for project managing the restoration

.